Golfers at the Knollwood Country Club of Elmsford met yesterday in the second of this season's fortnightly handicap tournaments for the Thebaud The oppressive heat interfered with the making of good scores, and those players who were able to finish their rounds in the morning, while it was cooler, had the best opportunity. E. S. Reynal, with a score of 130-27-193, won the tournament, thereby placing a third victory to his credit. He is now ahead in the contest, his nearest competitor being Mrs. P. G. Thebaud, who has won twice Mr. Reynal played better in the latter half of his game, showing a good style in his drives. L. E. Von Etten, the winner two weeks ago, and the only scratch man yesterday, scored 104, losing by stroke. For the first nine holes his play was much below his average, but toward the end he rallied so as to make some capital shots. work with the brassy, particularly in approaching the sixteenth hole, was extraordinary. Cleveland, May 9.-After two victories over Brooklyn, Cleveland met its Waterloo to-day. The Eastern team batted Wallace out of the box in the third. Cy Young was substituted, Wallace going into right field in place of Shearon. Young failed to stop the hitting, while the Cleveland players fielded wretchedly. Brooklyn bagan the run-getting in the first inning, when Griffin made a hit, McCarthy was hit by a pitched ball and Lachance, Shindle and Cor-coran made hits. Shearon dropped Shindle's hard drive after a long run. Four runs were made. In the third a slow play by Shearon and five hits netted another four, and in the sixth Brooklyn got six more runs on two errors and five hits. This was the first day that the new Saturday half-holiday law was in effect, and the attendance was largely increased in consequence. Forty-five hundred peo-ple saw the game. The score:
